(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Peel Castle. Here, from the end of Peel Pier, is a view of Peel Castle, standing on the little green islet of St. Patrick, which is connected with the mainland by the quay extension. The ruins are massive for all their extensive dilapidations. In 1902 King Edward and Queen Alexandra visited Peel and lunched at the Castle.

I to wish you very many happy returns of today, & all other thoughts that please you most

Love
